

The NJ "Do Not Call" list law has been a blessing to me and my family. As it is, between my husband and I's work schedule we have very little famiy time. The last thing we want is to fill it up with an abundance of frivolous phone calls. I for one support the law. It has been a fabulous protection of my privacy! Thank you NJ lawmakers.